

Becoming an Advanced English as an Additional Language (EAL) Practitioner

This is a 12 week University of Liverpool accredited course. Successful completion and assessment of the module will be to the value of 10 credits (credits have the potential to be used towards gaining a postgraduate award).

This is a post graduate course and applicants must hold an honours degree.

- This course will explore advanced EAL pedagogy and will enhance the skills of both mainstream and specialist practitioners.
- The course will be delivered by both EMTAS staff and lecturers from the University of Liverpool English Language Centre.
- The course will consist of 24 direct teaching hours and 76 hours of directed study.

When does the course begin?

Commencing February 25th 2021, 4pm and will run throughout the Spring and Summer term.

Delivery will be via tutor led sessions online. Some sessions will be pre- recorded to support a flexible approach to study.

How much does it cost?

£700 per delegate for the 12 week accredited course.

How can I book a place?

Please contact:
gill.rowlands@si.liverpool.gov.uk
to register interest.